

LAFER PACKAGING

Dynamism, freshness, desire to do and flexibility, combined with the skills and expertise acquired over many years are the best credentials with which we place ourselves in the market. Flow-Pack Packaging, Vertical Units, Count, Weighing machines, Finish Line, Automated Systems are our daily bread and through a continuous search for the best of both mechanical and software technologies are able to satisfy all customer needs, a good team and highly qualified accompanies him from the initial idea until the end of the project, adapting himself to its demands. The sales network covers all commercial areas of the world's leading Made in Italy anywhere. The application areas of our machines ranging from food, to ferramentistica, the small metal parts and in any industry where there is something to be packed.

An effective post-sale network allows us to assist the end user at any time, on-line or by intervening on the spot.

LAFER PACKAGING. . . reliability and competence to serve the customer.

